AN ENEMY OF WOMANHOOD

The complexion; digestion and almost the complete personality of woman are dependent upon health. Woman's ills are her great enemy, as they cause bad complexion, dark circles under the eyes, headache, backache, nervousness, sicentessances, dragging-down pains and the blues, and often totally unfit her for a companion. The great American remedy for such conditions is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which has been restoring three generations of alling women to health, and may be relied upon with perfect confidence.

at an elaborate autumn party Wednesday afternoon when she entertained at luncheon in special compliment to three visitors, Mrs. J. O. Baugh, of Clarkadale, Miss., Mrs. R. Newton McWilliams, of Farrell, Miss., and Miss Lucille Moore, of Gates, Tenn.

A Halloween decorative scheme was carried out, the rooms thrown open being banked with autumn leaves, with pumpkins and shocks of corn, caught with yellow tulle bows and festconed with black cats, owls, witches and other Halloween favors, the lights being softened with pumpkin shades. A bright fire burned in the open fireplace and over this boiled a witches caudron.

Covers were laid for 30 on 10 tables, each of which was lighted by yellow candles burning in crystal holders, having yellow silken shades.

In the game of bridge, which will follow the serving of a delicious menu, the guests will draw ribbons attached to the tail of a huge black cat, one ribbon being marked to designate the winner of the consolation favor.

For the afternoon the hostess was gowned in jeited net over gold cloth and the honor guests were also hand-somely gowned.
